

CELEBRATING COMMUNITY, STUDENT & EMPLOYEE EXCELLENCE A TRIBUTE FROM TRUSTEES

Community, Student & Employee Excellence – A Tribute from Trustees is a recognition program to honour community members, students and employees who develop initiatives that result in significant enrichment of Simcoe County District School Board (SCDSB) community members, students and employees.

The individual(s) will be honoured at the start of a regular Board meeting. At that time, a brief rationale will be read by the local Trustee. SCDSB certificates of recognition will be presented by the Chairperson of the Board and the local Trustee. The nominees will be reviewed by the Chair, Vice-Chair and Director of the Board. The selection will be based on the pre-determined criteria listed below. Staff, students and the community-at-large will be encouraged to make nominations. Official nominations will be accepted on the form available on the SCDSB website.

CRITERIA

Nominations may be made of any community member, student or group of students and any SCDSB employee or group of SCDSB employees who have made a significant contribution. Outstanding achievements will be considered at the local, provincial, national or international level, including:

- Development of initiatives that result in significant enrichment of the educational experience of students or colleagues or the advancement of public education while working on a special project or initiative;
- Receipt of local, provincial, national or international awards;

Completed nomination forms may be e-mailed to lrobyn@scdsb.on.ca or addressed to:
